Lawyers Associated Worldwide Announces Election of Regional Representatives for 2023/2024

Regional Representatives selected to represent the interests of nearly 4,500 business lawyers to serve on the non-profit association's Executive Committee

FORT COLLINS, COLORADO, USA – Lawyers Associated Worldwide (LAW) announces the five Regional Representatives, selected by their peers from the organization's member firms, who will serve on the non-profit association's Executive Committee.

LAW is a global association of approximately 100 independent law firms located in more than 50 countries. Organized as a non-profit association under the Swiss Civil Code, LAW is governed by an Executive Committee. Regional Representatives play an important role in the governance of the organization, as they are selected by the membership to represent the interests of members in all matters that come before the Executive Committee. Regional Representatives are elected to serve a two year-term in one of LAW's three regions: Americas, Asia Pacific, and Europe, Africa, and the Middle East (EAME).

Newly-elected Regional Representatives include:

Osamu Inoue
Ushijima & Partners, Attorneys-at-Law
Tokyo, Japan (Asia Pacific Region)

Pia Tanskanen

Procopé & Hornborg Attorneys Ltd
Helsinki, Finland (EAME Region)

Mathilde Croze

LERINS
Paris, France (EAME Region)

Two additional Regional Representatives will begin their second term after having been re-elected, including:

Elizabeth Davis

Burke, Warren, MacKay & Serritella, P.C.
Chicago, Illinois USA (Americas Region)

Mario Zambrano Ábrego

Santos-Elizondo, S.C.
Monterrey, Mexico (Americas Region)

Each of the Regional Representatives will begin their two-year term at the conclusion of the 2023 Annual General Meeting, taking place 18-22 October 2023 in Sydney, Australia.

Leon Loganathan, Chair of Lawyers Associated Worldwide said, "We are very excited to welcome the 2023/2024 Regional Representatives. Each of these Representatives comes to us with different skillsets and levels of experience within the organization. What they all share is a passion for LAW and for representing our members in the absolute best way possible, and I look forward to working with each and every one."

LAW congratulates each of the new Regional Representatives, and thanks them for their commitment to the organization and its members. Learn more about each at the LAW website, www.lawyersworldwide.com.
