JONATHAN LITSTER APPOINTED TO THREE COMMITTEES OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR JUSTICE

PHOENIX, Ariz. and Santa Fe, NM (July 18, 2025) - G&K is pleased to announce that associate attorney Jonathan Litster has been appointed to serve on three national committees within the American Association for Justice (AAJ). Jonathan will serve as a member of the Law Schools Committee through July 31, 2026, and on both the Exchange Advisory Committee and the Public Education Committee through July 31, 2028.

These appointments reflect Jonathan's continued commitment to advancing legal education, fostering professional development, and supporting the broader mission of the AAJ.

The American Association for Justice (AAJ) is dedicated to protecting the rights of those who have been injured and ensuring access to justice through a strong civil justice system. With a global membership and a network of affiliates across the U.S. and Canada, AAJ supports trial attorneys through advocacy, education, and the exchange of critical information related to public health and safety. The organization works to uphold the right to a jury trial and promote the core democratic values that are fundamental to civil justice.

Jonathan is a catastrophic injury attorney at Gallagher & Kennedy in Phoenix, representing plaintiffs in a broad range of tort litigation, including catastrophic personal injury, insurance bad faith, motor vehicle accidents, product liability, and professional malpractice. He has extensive experience advocating for injured victims and their families.
