Swiss Post Completes Acquisition of Groupe T2i with Additional 49% Stake

The Swiss Post acquired 49% of Groupe T2i from its founder, Claude-Michel Salamin, in a second transaction following a first acquisition by Swiss Post of 51% of the shares of Groupe T2i in 2022. Group T2i is a leading editor and manager of software for human resources and public administration.

valfor advised Claude-Michel Salamin in the two transactions with a team consisting of Christophe de Kalbermatten, Alexandra Sierro and Anne-Claude Knupfer (all M&A).

About valfor:

valfor is the result of the merger of the leading Swiss business law firms BianchiSchwald, GHR Rechtsanwälte and PYTHON on July 1, 2024. The merger created one of the most proficient national full-service business law firms, with more than 80 lawyers in six offices in Switzerland and an office in Brussels. In an increasingly complex economic and legal environment, valfor serves as a one-stop shop for clients with diverse legal needs. With a strong interdisciplinary approach and an international outlook in all areas of business law, we provide our clients with comprehensive advice tailored to their individual concerns from a single source. Our strength comes from our extensive knowledge, strong technical skills, professional experience, use of cutting-edge technology and unwavering commitment to excellence. valfor stands for our ongoing commitment and our shared endeavor to provide our clients with best-in-class legal services and real added value – value beyond legal advice.
