

valfor Deals and Cases

Valfor advises Axis Group shareholders on the sale to Smartec

In September 2024, the Comdat/Smartec Group acquired the printing services provider Axis. With this acquisition, the group becomes a Swiss leader in photocopiers, printing and document management solutions.

valfor represented the Axis shareholders. The team was led by Christophe de Kalbermatten (partner).

About valfor:

valfor is the result of the merger of the leading Swiss business law firms BianchiSchwald, GHR Rechtsanwälte and PYTHON on July 1, 2024. The merger created one of the most proficient national full-service business law firms, with more than 80 lawyers in six offices in Switzerland and an office in Brussels. In an increasingly complex economic and legal environment, valfor serves as a one-stop shop for clients with diverse legal needs. With a strong interdisciplinary approach and an international outlook in all areas of business law, we provide our clients with comprehensive advice tailored to their individual concerns from a single source. Our strength comes from our extensive knowledge, strong technical skills, professional experience, use of cutting-edge technology and unwavering commitment to excellence. valfor stands for our ongoing commitment and our shared endeavor to provide our clients with best-in-class legal services and real added value – value beyond legal advice.

<https://www.valfor.ch/>

December 2024