

Marc Grüninger among WWL Who's Who Legal's Global Elite 2023 Thought Leaders

GHR Rechtsanwälte partner Marc Grüninger was selected as one of the world's highest-ranked lawyers in the 2023 edition of WWL Who's Who Legal Thought Leaders Global Elite. For the fifth consecutive year, he has been recognized as a leading practitioner in the energy sector (Energy - Power/Electricity and Oil & Gas, Switzerland).

Published annually, the guide honors the top five percent of all recognized legal practitioners from around the world. The selection is based on a rigorous and independent research process. Only those receiving the highest number of recommendations from peers, corporate counsel, clients and industry sources in their area of expertise are included in the rankings. According to WWL:

"Marc Grüninger is hailed as "a great guy" working in the space who is "brilliant on the corporate side" and "very easy to work with"."

"Marc Grüninger excels in domestic and cross-border transactions spanning the energy and natural resources market."

"Marc Grüninger receives accolades for his impressive track-record working on M&A and financing transactions within the energy sector."

Marc Grüninger co-heads GHR's Corporate/M&A practice and heads the Capital Markets practice. He advises on corporate governance, compliance and shareholder relations. He represents clients in domestic and cross-border, private and public M&A, joint venture and private equity, as well as capital markets and corporate finance transactions, including debt financing, securities offerings, syndicated, structured and collateralized lending. He also specializes in advising companies active in regulated markets, in particular in the energy and natural resources sector.
