

valfor Deals and Cases

valfor advises IDS Group on the acquisition of AUVISO Audio Visual Solutions AG

In September 2024, Inno Digital Services AG (IDS) acquired 100% of the shares of AUVISO Audio Visual Solutions AG, one of the leading centers of excellence for audio-visual solutions in Switzerland. IDS holds, among others, a stake in Kilchenman AG, based in Kehrsatz, Switzerland.

Kilchenmann AG and AUVISO Audio Visual Solutions AG are joining forces under the umbrella of the IDS Group. The two companies wish to strengthen their position in the Swiss market for high-quality communication, media and event technology and help shape the ongoing consolidation of the Swiss market for professional communication and media technology.

valfor represented IDS as legal counsel in this transaction. The team was led by Bruno Hunziker (Partner) and included Dr. iur. Martina Reber (M&A) and Jil Suter (Tax and M&A).

About valfor:

valfor is the result of the merger of the leading Swiss business law firms BianchiSchwald, GHR Rechtsanwälte and PYTHON on July 1, 2024. The merger created one of the most proficient national full-service business law firms, with more than 80 lawyers in six offices in Switzerland and an office in Brussels. In an increasingly complex economic and legal environment, valfor serves as a one-stop shop for clients with diverse legal needs. With a strong interdisciplinary approach and an international outlook in all areas of business law, we provide our clients with comprehensive advice tailored to their individual concerns from a single source. Our strength comes from our extensive knowledge, strong technical skills, professional experience, use of cutting-edge technology and unwavering commitment to excellence. valfor stands for our ongoing commitment and our shared endeavor to provide our clients with best-in-class legal services and real added value – value beyond legal advice.

<https://www.valfor.ch/>

December 2024